Robert,

I'm following up on our phone conversation last night. First, as I noted on the phone, Triadou does not waive your client's failure to timely object or respond to Triadou's subpoenas and reserves the right to raise this in the event we need to move to compel. Second, you have indicated that you will speak with your client about documents and get back to me as soon as possible. We request that you provide a response no later than Monday, 12/11, by close of business, and preferably by the end of this week if possible. Lastly, with respect to Mr. Sater's deposition, you have indicated he cannot sit on December 15, 2017. Please provide alternative deposition dates. Please also keep in mind that we will want to obtain Mr. Sater's documents before we depose him.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Best,
Alex

Alex, I had double knee replacement surgery 2 weeks ago and have been out of the office. Will call you later to discuss.
Thanks

Robert,

I'm following up on the attached subpoena package, which I emailed to you several weeks ago, and which our office served in hard copy on the same day (October 25, 2017). The date for Mr. Sater to produce documents in response to our subpoena has come and gone (November 13), and we have received no documents or even a response from you. When can we expect to receive these documents?

Please contact me as soon as possible. Thank you.

Best,
Alex

Robert,

Please find attached subpoenas to your client Felix Sater for the production of documents and a deposition. Someone from our office will walk down shortly to provide you with hard copies and a check for the witness fee. We look forward to hearing from you.

Best,
Alex

Robert,

I hope all is well. I tried to give you a call, but you are out of the office and your cell phone voicemail box is full.

We understand from Boies Schiller that you may currently represent Felix Sater and Laurent Foucher (see the attached Amended Initial Disclosures served by Almaty/BTA). We intend to serve subpoenas on both individuals – will you accept service on their behalf? Please let us know, if possible, no later than Tuesday next week (October 17), though we would of course appreciate a response sooner.

Thank you.

Best,
Alex
